Askleipion and Zia Village & Winery from Kos

Embark on a captivating journey through the legendary island of Kos, the birthplace of Hippocrates, father of modern medicine. This immersive tour blends ancient history, traditional village life, and local flavor into a truly unforgettable experience. Your adventure begins at the Asklepieion, a sacred sanctuary built in 460 B.C. and dedicated to Asclepius, the ancient Greek god of healing. Nestled among serene pine groves and overlooking the sea, this site was once a center of medical wisdom, where Hippocratic principles of healing were practiced. Explore the ruins of temples, treatment rooms, and Roman baths, and discover how spirituality and science merged in one of the world's earliest hospitals. Next, travel to the mountain village of Zia, a jewel tucked into the slopes of Mount Dikaios. With its whitewashed houses, narrow stone lanes, and spectacular views stretching across the Aegean to nearby Turkey, Zia captures the authentic heart of rural Kos. Relax with a traditional Greek coffee, sample local sweets, and browse artisan shops filled with handmade crafts and local goods. The experience concludes with a visit to a winery, where you'll be welcomed for a tasting of four premium wines, showcasing the unique character of Kos's wine making tradition. Savor each sip surrounded by the lush vineyards and passion of local craftsmanship.
